PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is heartening to note that the Association of Southern Urologists has been carrying out academic and social activities in a commendable manner. The II ASU-Prof. H.S.Bhat Mid Term Workshop held recently at Kochi was not only a dedication to the doyen of Urology, but also an inspiring academic feast for all the attendees. I understand that this year will witness a long list of educational activities to be conducted by ASU and I urge all the members to actively participate in the proceedings. I also wish all the members a Very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Yours

Dr. Thiyagarajan K

FROM THE DESK OF HONORARY SECRETARY

I am happy to present to you the second edition of our Newsletter for this ASU year, which mainly contains the reports of various academic activities conducted all across our territory of southern India. It goes without saying that all the programs were of high intellectual standards with very good attendance. More programs are on the pipeline during the next few months. The draft Guidelines for Management of GUTB will be ready soon and circulated for your consensus. Our website is uploaded with variety of information and it will be worthwhile if you could take some time off to visit the same. The preparations for SZUSICON 2015 are in full swing and we assure that you will have a memorable academic fiesta for the conference. To keep up our tradition of high-tech education, we plan to have online submission and review of abstracts through Microsoft CMT linked to our website, the details of which will be available soon. The updation of Membership Directory is also in good pace and we solicit the cooperation of every member in this regard. The deficiencies sighted in the statutory requirements of our society are being rectified and it is heartening to inform that our financial status is sound. Please feel free to contact us anytime for any information.

Yours

Dr.H.Krishna Moorthy

2ND ASU – PROF. H.S.BHAT MID TERM WORKSHOP, KOCHI

OBITUARY Prof.Ranganatha Rao

Prof.Ranganatha Rao was born on 11.04.1930 and qualified his MBBS in 1952, MS (Century) in 1962 and MCh (Uro) in 1969. He served as Assistant Professor of Surgery in Andhra Medical College, Vizag and Gandhi Medical College, Hyderabad from 1962-1970. He then served as Professor and Head of Dept. of Urology in Osmaina Medical College from 1970 to 1983, during which he started the renal transplant program and post graduate education program. He also worked as honorary consultant in Urology at Nizam's Institute of Medical Sciences, Hyderabad. He was an examiner to many MCh (Urology) candidates all across the country. He also served as Honorary Secretary of USI (1982-86) and President of USI (1989). He was very soft spoken and has always been an inspiring force for the young Urologists in the state of Andhra Pradesh. He is a proud founder member of Association of Southern Urologists. He left for his heavenly abode on 17th December 2014. May his Soul Rest in Peace

Dr. Mallikarjuna Gurappa Desai

We regret you to inform you the unkindly demise of one of our members Dr. Mallikarjuna Gurappa Desai from Bengaluru on 28th January 2015. He was an alumnus from PGI Chandigarh and was working as Professor of Urology at Ambedkar Medical College. He was an active member of the society. The Society expresses deep sorrow for this loss, and may his soul rest in peace.

“Beware of Compliments”

This is the true story of an incidence wherein a company named Endosys, Chennai, took the organizers of SZUSICON 2014 for a ride. Mr.K.V Santharam, M/s Endosys Technologies, 572, Kaveri Complex, 96, M.G Road, Nungambakkam, Chennai 600 034 (Phone: 09384560061) approached the organizers of SZUSICON 2014 on 30.7.14 and confirmed their trade participation during the Conference at a special discounted stall rate of Rs.60,000 for three days. Accordingly they were allotted stall no.9 in Area 2 of Trade Zone during the conference. As per the rules of conference, the entire payment should have been made before the start of the conference. However the company never made a payment in spite of repeated requests from organizers.

A representative from the above company came to occupy the stall on 8th August 2014, Friday (1st day of conference). However he was prevented from doing so, by the organizers due to default in payment. The gentleman left the scene to come back on 9th

August 2014 (Saturday) and begged that he may be permitted to occupy the stall, since he vouched that the payment had already been made by his company via RTGS transfer. A confirmation email was soon received by the organizers from M/s Endosys (copy attached), which was reconfirmed by telephonic conversation with Mr. Santharam who was in Chennai. However being a Saturday and the bank where the conference account was operated worked only till 12.00 noon, verification at the bank was not possible at that instance. The company duly occupied the stall by the noon of 9th August 2014. On 10th August 2014, once the conference was over the representative of M/s Endosys brought in 2 endoscope sterilization boxes to the organizers and presented to them as “compliment”, which he said was customary for the company over the last several years whenever they participate in trade exhibition, as a token of gratitude. The organizers seriously objected to this; however the representative pleaded that this be accepted since he felt that this was the first occasion when a gift offered by him was rejected by the receiver. The organizers accepted and kept the two “compliments” in the office itself.

On verification of accounts in the bank on 11th August 2014, it was understood that there was never an RTGS transfer made by the said company to the conference account and the e-mail was forged.

This was brought to the notice of Mr. Santharam, who was then repeatedly contacted by the organizers— but there was no reply or action from the offenders. The organizing Secretary of SZUSICON 20014, Dr.Krishna Moorthy along with the Hony.Treasurer of ASU made a valiant attempt to barge into the premises of the said office of M/s Endosys at Chennai on 13th September 2014. Mr. Santharam was shocked to see the team, whom he had cheated. After repeated requests and threats from the organizers, Mr. Santharam agreed to settle the issue in 48 hrs time.

However 2 days later the organizers received a mail from M/s Endosys informing that the organizers had “purchased” two endoscope boxes from them during the conferences and the dues of Rs.60,000 may be adjusted against the payment to be made by the company towards the conference

It is disheartening to believe that companies of this nature do cheat the entire doctor community at times for their own personal benefits. We are just game to the cruel deeds of them. The “compliments” given by them might get charged later!! Legal experts believe that it would never be possible to recover the money from these defaulters, since it is virtually impossible for any organizers to get all agreements written on stamp paper, signed by witness and notarized; this being the only valuable document accepted by courts as evidence in these cases. We have to be wiser next time when dealing with people like Mr. Santharam’s M/s Endosys.
